General Information

CLINICAL AND EXPERIMENTAL OBSTETRICS AND GYNECOLOGY (ISSN 0390-6663) publishes original peer-reviewed work, preferably brief reports, in the fields of Gynecology, Obstetrics, Fetal Medicine, Gynecological Endocrinology, Fertility and Sterility, Menopause, Uro-gynecology, Ultrasound diagnosis in Obstetrics and Gynecology, Sexually transmitted diseases and related topics. It is indexed in INDEX MEDICUS, MEDLINE, EMBASE/Excerpta Medica.

AIMS AND SCOPE

Since its inception, the CLINICAL AND EXPERIMENTAL OBSTETRICS AND GYNECOLOGY Journal has had the primary aim to assemble and diffuse scientific researches, particularly original researches, contributions, reviews, and proceedings of meetings in every field of the Discipline.

Today its large diffusion all over the world allows us to collect high quality papers and clinical reports on many interesting studies from every country, even from developing countries. This is the target goal of the Journal – aiming at the diffusion of knowledge and advances in female genital diseases.

This publication tries to cover all aspects of obstetrics and gynecology in an interdisciplinary approach among gynecologists, epidemiologists, pathologists, oncologists, radiologists, microbiologists, surgeons, urologists, neonatologists, genetists and so on.

The first target goal of the Journal is to publish high quality papers in the shortest time possible. Research papers, editorial reviews, case reports, technical notes, book reviews and letters to the Editor are published.

ANNOUNCEMENTS regarding meetings, postgraduate courses and symposia will be accepted 6 months before publication and will be published free of charge.

BOOK SAMPLES for review should be sent to the Editorial offices in Montréal or in Padova.

The Editor-in-Chief and the Publisher cannot accept any legal responsibility for any errors or omissions that may be made in press, particularly for information about drug dosage and application thereof contained in the Journal. Consult the prescribing information before administering any drug.

MANUSCRIPT REQUIREMENTS

The Journal follows the "Uniform requirements for manuscripts submitted to biomedical journals" published in the New England Journal of Medicine 1991, 324, 424-8 and in the British Medical Journal 1991, 302.

The manuscripts must be sent by mail and never by e-mail.

Three manuscripts typed and double spaced should be submitted by mail (not by email) with an electronic disk, formatted in Word for Macintosh or Windows, version 6.0. Manuscripts without an electronic disk will not be accepted. A cover letter signed by all authors must state that all authors who have participated in the work take responsibility for the manuscript which has never been published or submitted for publication elsewhere. Without a cover letter the publication will not be possible. Name, address and phone/fax numbers of the Corresponding Author, responsible for revision and approval of the proofs, should be indicated. Full-length articles should not exceed 8 printed pages including tables and references.

After the title page (full title and names of authors, institutions, eventual acknowledgement for financial support, running title of no more than 60 characters or spaces), original works should be arranged in the conventional order: Summary (purpose of investigation, methods, results, conclusion - about 150 words), Key words, Content (a 20-word summary), Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, Acknowledgement (if any), References, Tables, Legends.

Authors should supply a complete address for reprint requests.

In the text only standard abbreviations can be used and must be avoided in the title. The full term for which an abbreviation stands should precede its first use in the summary and text unless it is a standard unit of measurement.

Authors must give their complete professional identifications and affiliations, including all academic titles and positions.

Letters to the editor should be brief (500 words or less) and offer objective, constructive and educational criticism of published material. The editor reserves the right to publish.

Figures: Two original copies (not negatives) of each figure are requested. Each figure should have a label on the back indicating its number, author's name and top of the figure. Do not write on the back of the figures and do not mount them on cardboard. If sending colour pictures advise if they must be printed in colour or black and white (colour costs ten times more).

Legends should be typed on a separate page with Arabic numerals corresponding to the illustrations.

Tables should be titled, typed in double space on separate pages and numbered in Arabic numerals in the order of their first citation in the text. Do not use internal rules. Only standard, universally understood abbreviations should be used.

References should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text. Identify references in the text, tables, and legends by Arabic numerals in parentheses.

Use the style of the examples below, which are based with slight modifications on the format used by the U.S. National Library of Medicine in Index Medicus. The titles of journals should be abbreviated according to the style used in Index Medicus.

References must be verified by the Author(s) against the original documents.

Examples of correct forms of references are given below:

Articles in Journals: Authors' surname and initials (if more than six names, give six followed by "et al."), Title, Abbreviated Journal Title, Year of Publication, Volume, Issue and first page.

Books: Authors' surname and initials, title of the book and title of chapter, in: Title, Editor(s), Place, Publisher, Year, Page.

Acknowledgments will be limited to appropriate professionals who were contributors to the paper.

PROOFS revised by the editorial staff will be sent to the corresponding author and should be checked and returned within ten days. The corresponding author is responsible for detecting typesetting errors. After this deadline the proofs will be considered approved. Only essential corrections should be made; extensive changes will be charged to the authors.

BUSINESS MATTERS

The Journal has no commercial advertisements.

Authors will be expected to contribute to the printing expenses, tables, figures and postage. For every published article a copy of the Journal will be provided free of charge. Only payments in US dollars will be accepted. No bank transfers.

Reprints should be requested with the form enclosed with the acceptance letter. No free reprints will be supplied.

EDITORIAL ARTICLE

- A novel method to evaluate pregnancy rates following in vitro fertilization to enable a better understanding of the true efficacy of the procedure 213

B. Katsoff, J.H. Check, J.K. Check, C. Wilson - Camden, NJ (USA)

A new method of interpreting the chance of pregnancy per oocyte harvest that allows better interpretation of efficacy of in vitro fertilization centers with strong cryopreservation programs is described.

ORIGINAL ARTICLESReproductive Biology Section

- Three successful pregnancies with in vitro fertilization embryo transfer over an eight year time span despite elevated basal serum follicle stimulating hormone levels. Case report 217

J.H. Check, B. Katsoff - Camden, NJ (USA)

Three successful pregnancies over an eight year span were achieved following IVF-ET despite elevated baseline serum FSH.

- Development of mammalian embryos exposed to mixed-size nanoparticles 222

S.J. Bosman, S.P. Nieto, W.C. Patton, J.D. Jacobson, J.U. Corselli, P.J. Chan - Linda, CA (USA)

Mixed-size nanoparticles did not significantly affect embryonic development in vitro and exhibited preferential binding to the trophoblast cells.

- Aided visual inspection with acetic acid (VIA) and HPV detection as optional screening tools for cervical cancer and its precursor lesions 225

J.F. Bragança, S.F. Derchain, L.O. Sarian, S.M. Messias da Silva, S. Labatte, L.C. Zeferino - Campinas, BRAZIL

Visual inspection with acetic acid may contribute to the screening of abnormalities of the uterine cervix, alone or combined with a Pap smear.

- Effects of laparoscopic tubal ligation on ovarian blood flow and steroidogenesis 230

A. Baloglu, D. Uysal, L. Karci, C.M. Guven, E. Yavuz - Izmir, TURKEY

A prospective longitudinal study on the effects of laparoscopic tubal ligation on ovarian blood flow and steroidogenesis was evaluated.

- Hysterectomy: benefits of clinical performance indicators in the evaluation of healthcare facilities 233

A. Mancuso, A. De Vivo, O. Triolo, S. Irato, G. Mazzù - Messina, ITALY

Clinical performance indicators may determine a refinement of clinical performance with positive effects on health, patient satisfaction, postoperative morbidity, hospitalization and healthcare costs.

- Evaluation and importance of asymptomatic bacteriuria in pregnancy 237

S. Tugrul, O. Oral, P. Kumru, D. Köse, A. Alkan, G. Yildirim - Istanbul, TURKEY

The study was undertaken to determine the incidence of asymptomatic bacteriuria (ASB) during pregnancy and its prevalence in the three trimesters. ASB distribution in the first, second, and third trimesters was 0.9%, 1.83%, and 5.6%, respectively, and there was a significant relationship between advanced maternal age and ASB incidence.

- A ten-year gestational diabetes mellitus cohort at a university clinic of the mid-Anatolian region of Turkey 241

H.M. Tanir, T. Sener, H. Güre, M. Kaya - Eskisehir, TURKEY

A retrospective snap-shot of a 10-year gestational diabetes mellitus cohort in a tertiary referral center in Turkey was documented based on the contemporary literature.
