EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF GYNAECOLOGICAL ONCOLOGY (ISSN 0392-2936) publishes original peer reviewed works in the fields of female genital cancers and related subjects and also proceedings of gynecologic oncology society meetings all over the world. The Journal is covered by CURRENT CONTENTS, SCISEARCH, RESEARCH ALERT, INDEX MEDICUS, MEDLINE, EMBASE/Excerpta Medica, CURRENT ADVANCES IN CANCER RESEARCH, BIOSIS.

DISTINGUISHED EXPERT SERIES

- The columnar epithelium hypothesis of cervical carcinogenesis 137
 O. Reich - Graz, AUSTRIA
 It is hypothesized that cervical carcinogenesis starts with HPV infection of the columnar epithelium.

REVIEW ARTICLE

- Future directions in the field of endometrial cancer research: the need to investigate the tumor microenvironment 139
 A.S. Felix, J. Weissfeld, R. Edwards, F. Linkov - Pittsburgh, PA (USA)
 An overview of the importance of studying the tumor microenvironment in relation to the development and progression of endometrial cancer.

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

- The clinical use of type 1 interferon in gynecology 145
 M.C. Ramos, M.C. Mardegan, N.R. Tirone, M.A. Michelin, E.F.C. Murta - Minas Gerais, BRAZIL
 Development of new formulations of interferon is needed to match the demand for its use in oncology treatment.
- Vitamin D-1 $\alpha$ -hydroxylase and vitamin D-24-hydroxylase in benign and malign breast tissue 151
 T. Cordes, D. Fischer, M. Thill, S. Becker, M. Friedrich, D. Salehin - Krefeld, GERMANY
 The expression of vitamin D<sub>3</sub> 1 $\alpha$ -OHase and 24-OHase in benign and malign breast tissues was analyzed.
- Prognostic significance of intratumoral vascular endothelial growth factor as a marker of tumour angiogenesis in epithelial ovarian cancer 156
 G.K. Siddiqui, K. Elmasry, A.C. Wong Te Fong, C. Perrett, R. Morris, J.C.C. Crow, A.B. Maclean - London, UK
 VEGF-A expression is an independent prognostic indicator and may identify patient subgroups in which anti-angiogenic therapy is more effective.
- Expression and significance of  $\beta$ -catenin, Glut-1 and PTEN in proliferative endometrium, endometrial intraepithelial neoplasia and endometrioid adenocarcinoma 160
 Y. Xiong, Y.Y. Xiong, Y.F. Zhou - Wuhan, CHINA
 Exploration of expression patterns of  $\beta$ -catenin, Glut-1 and PTEN as markers for EIN diagnosis.
- Occurrence of malignancy in endometrial polyps during postmenopause 165
 B. Mossa, F. Torcia, F. Avenoso, S. Tucci, R. Marziani - Rome, ITALY
 The study was performed on 351 patients with endometrial polyps to evaluate the occurrence of endometrial polyp malignancy in pre- and postmenopause.
- The effects of genital Schistosoma haematobium on human papillomavirus and the development of cervical neoplasia after five years in a Zimbabwean population 169
 E.F. Kjetland, P.D. Ndhlovu, T. Mduluza, V. Deschoolmeester, N. Midzi, E. Gomo, L. Gwanzura, P.R. Mason, J.B. Vermorken, H. Friis, S.G. Gundersen, M.F.D. Baay - Wilrijk, BELGIUM
 The impact of Schistosoma haematobium on persistent HPV in rural Zimbabwean women at high-risk was investigated.
- Recent trends in incidence, mortality and survival after cancer of the female breast and reproductive organs. Umbria, Italy: 1978-2005 174
 D. D'Alò, F. Stracci, T. Cassetti, M. Scheibel, C. Pascucci, F. La Rosa - Perugia, ITALY
 Breast and cervical cancer occurrence was linked to population screening; incidence of uterine and ovarian cancer was probably related to modifications in risk factor exposure.

The value of proliferation indexes in breast cancer	181
G. Karanikas, N. Koronakis, E.E. Lagoudianakis, D. Grosomanidis, G. Karavitis, I. Koukoutsis, A. Pappas, K. Kotzadimitriou, A. Papadima, J. Chrysikos, G. Zografos, G. Xepapadakis, A. Manouras - Athens, GREECE The role of Ki-67 antigen and its immunoreactivity as a prognostic marker of neoplasias.
Epidemiological modelling of risk factors of human papilloma virus in women with positive cytology in the county of Csongrád	185
L. Kalmár, J. Deák, L. Thurzó, A. Pál, E. Bernad, T.A. Nyári - Szeged, HUNGARY This study provides evidence that HPV infection and smoking are associated with an increased risk of positive cytology in women.
Verification of the accuracy of cervical cytology reports in women referred for colposcopy	187
K. Papathanasiou, A. Daniilidis, I. Koutsos, C. Sardeli, C. Glannoulis, J. Tzafettas - Thessaloniki, GREECE Of patients with severe dyskaryotic smears 80%-90% will have a histology report confirming CIN III. A "see and treat" management can be decided sometimes, if supported by the colposcopic findings and an audit should confirm accuracy to, at least, 90% of cases.
Loop electrosurgical excision procedure in Greek patients with vulvar intraepithelial neoplasia	191
E. Terzakis, G. Androutopoulos, G. Derdelis, D. Zygouris, C. Grigoriadis, N. Apostolikas - Athens, GREECE Electrosurgery on vulvar intraepithelial neoplasia.
CASE REPORTS
Preservation of ovarian function by ovarian transposition prior to concurrent chemotherapy and pelvic radiation for cervical cancer. A case report and review of the literature	194
M.C.W.M. Bloemers, L. Portelance, C. Legler, M.C. Renaud, S.L. Tan - Quebec, CANADA A case of preservation of ovarian function and regular normal menstrual cycles after pelvic cisplatin-based chemoradiation is reported together with a literature review.
External iliac artery ligation due to late postoperative rupture after radical lymphadenectomy for advanced ovarian cancer - two case reports	198
C. Fotopoulou, U. Neumann, R. Kraetschell, W. Lichtenegger, J. Sehoulis - Berlin, GERMANY Operative management of late postoperative rupture of the external iliac artery after radical lymphadenectomy in advanced ovarian cancer.
A novel technique for surgical reconstruction of the perineal floor following anteroposterior exenteration of the pelvis - case report and review of the literature	201
M.A. Kyriazi, V.K. Stafyla, A. Kondi-Pafiti, N. Arkadopoulou, N. Dafnios, D. Hasiakos, S. Fotiou, D. Mastorakos, V. Smyrniotis - Athens, GREECE A novel technique for the surgical reconstruction of the perineal floor following anteroposterior exenteration of the pelvis.
Usefulness of routine intraoperative staging of suspicious adnexal tumours: illustration by two cases of adult granulosa cell tumour	206
A.S. Bats, F. Larousserie, M.A. Le Frère-Belda, U. Metzger, F. Lécuru - Paris, FRANCE Extensive abdominal exploration in patients with a suspicious ovarian mass is useful to obviate the need for a second staging procedure.
A rare case of ovarian Burkitt lymphoma associated tumor lysis syndrome	209
Tao Cui, Chao Wang, Haining He, Gang Shi, Lina Hu - Shanghai, CHINA A rare case of a patient who died of tumor lysis syndrome after surgical and chemotherapeutical treatment for ovarian Burkitt lymphoma is reported.
Primary adenocarcinoma of the rectovaginal septum arising in pregnancy in the absence of endometriosis	211
G. Giordano, A. Bersiga, G. Marchetti, M. Melpignano - Cremona, ITALY A case of primary adenocarcinoma of the rectovaginal septum arising in pregnancy is reported with the clinical and pathological findings.
Primary serous papillary carcinoma of the peritoneum mimicking pelvic actinomycosis: a case report and brief literature review	214
J.H. Hwang, S.H. Song, K.A. Kim, B.K. Shin, J.K. Lee, N.W. Lee, K.W. Lee - Seoul, KOREA Pelvic CT and MRI were limited in their ability to differentiate inflammation, such as actinomycosis, from primary carcinoma of the peritoneum.

Cervical cancer metastasis to the scalp: case report and literature review	217
H. Takagi, S. Miura, K. Matsunami, T. Ikeda, A. Imai - Gifu, JAPAN
A case of squamous cell carcinoma of the cervix in a patient who presented with isolated scalp metastasis.
Ovarian metastasis following gallbladder carcinoma: a case report	219
C. Carlomagno, L. Insabato, G. Bifulco, S. De Placido, R. Lauria - Naples, ITALY
A case of ovarian metastases from gallbladder cancer incidentally diagnosed about 2.5 years earlier during a laparoscopic intervention for biliary lithiasis.
Granular cell tumor of the female genital system. Clinical and pathologic characteristics of five cases and literature review	222
A. Kondi-Pafiti, E. Kairi-Vassilatou, A. Liapis, K. Bakalianou, Ch. Iavazzo, D. Hasiakos - Athens, GREECE
Characteristics of five cases of granular cell tumor developing in the vulva and breast.
Borderline tumour arising in a transposed ovary in utero: a rare complication of the Estes operation	225
J.W. van den Brink, E. Winkel, R.A.K. Samlal - Heerlen, THE NETHERLANDS
A case of a 69-year-old patient with a borderline tumour arising in a transposed ovary after an Estes operation is presented.
Minimal deviation adenocarcinoma of the cervix in a patient with a high-grade cervical squamous intraepithelial lesion: case report and review of the literature	227
I. Papastefanou, P. Panagopoulos, S. Samolis, S. Karadaglis, M. Katsoulis - Pireaus, GREECE
A rare case of minimal deviation adenocarcinoma diagnosed after conisation for cervical high-grade squamous intraepithelial lesion.
Dissecting cotyledonoid leiomyoma: a rare cause of chronic intractable menorrhagia (not amenable to medical treatment). Case report	230
T.O. Adedipe, S.J. Vine - London, UK
Sternberg tumour, a cause of intractable menorrhagia, is quite rare with potential alarming macroscopic features leading to over-aggressive treatment.
Primary melanoma of the vagina: a case report	233
S. Samolis, P. Panagopoulos, N. Kanellopoulos, I. Papastefanou, S. Karadaglis, M. Katsoulis - Pireaus, GREECE
The case of a primary vaginal melanoma in an 85-year-old patient is presented.
Book Review	235
